Dear Irving,

ON HUDSON

Yves Jadot Restaurant Group, creators of New York City's most romantic bars, today announces the opening of Dear Irving on Hudson, the first expansion of the group's beloved and critically acclaimed Irving Place bar. The bilevel space, which accommodates up to 250 guests, is located on the 40th and 41st floors of the new Aliz Hotel in Midtown West, making it the highest open-air penthouse in the city for enjoying craft cocktails.

With James Bond and Art Deco time travel themes, sublime cocktails by Bar Director and Partner Meaghan Dorman, spectacular views of Manhattan through floor to ceiling windows, luxurious terraces, as well as dining options, Dear Irving on Hudson opened in January 2019.

The original Dear Irving opened in 2014 in Manhattan's Gramercy Park neighborhood and it is a favorite of New Yorkers and visitors to the city alike. The bar was a top 10 finalist for a 2015 Tales of the Cocktail Spirited Award for "Best New American Cocktail Bar" and was included among Esquire's "Best Bars in America" that same year. Dear Irving on Hudson represents the bar's first expansion to a new location.
